

I urge the FCC to mandate a la carte cable programming. Packages force consumers to subsidize channels with objectionable content.